

VAN SCHIJNDEL HUIS

Dear Architecture Enthusiast,

Thank you for your interest in visiting the Van Schijndel House.

Since 2008, the Van Schijndel House has been open for a limited number of individual and group visits. Priority is given to professional architects, designers, and architecture and design schools. Visits are by appointment only and limited to a maximum of 10 people per group. Once an appointment is confirmed, we kindly ask for a list of all participants, including their names and contact details. Only those listed will be admitted. Groups are expected to arrive a few minutes before the scheduled start time at the address provided below.

The guided tour includes the central area, kitchen, and private spa on the ground floor, as well as the living room, former study, and workshop. As this is a private home, we ask for your understanding that the first floor—including the primary bedroom, guest bedroom, and daily bathroom—is not accessible. These spaces will instead be shown in a video tour during your visit. This 45-minute film, produced in 1995 when the house received the Rietveld Award, features architect Mart van Schijndel (1943–1999) guiding viewers through his design while sharing his ideas, working methods, and inspirations. Please note that photography inside the house is not permitted; exterior photos are allowed. You will enjoy a comprehensive visit and gain insight into both the house and its historic setting.

Admission is €45 per person. Coffee or tea and a cookie is included as part of the full admission fee. Students (with valid student ID), Docomomo members, and Members/Friends of the Mart van Schijndel Foundation or Iconic Houses Network (see www.iconichouses.org/support) receive a 50% discount and pay €22,50. The foundation is a non-profit organization operated entirely by volunteers. Your contribution helps support the programming of the house, the youngest national monument in the Netherlands. The fee is payable in advance and should be transferred to the following account:

Account name:	Stichting Mart van Schijndel
Bank:	ING Bank N.V.
Area code and Address bank:	8913 HA Tesselschadestraat 1
City and Country:	Leeuwarden, The Netherlands
SWIFT/BIC code bank:	INGBNL2A
IBAN:	NL46 INGB 0004142353

Please mention “donation” and the date of your visit as the payment reference.

Your tour is confirmed once your payment has been received (no additional confirmation will be sent).

In opening the private Van Schijndel House to the public, our priority is educational. With that in mind, we kindly ask you to share your thoughts about the house and your experience within 14 days after your visit by leaving a review on TripAdvisor or Google Review. I look forward to welcoming you to the house.

Sincerely yours,

Natascha Drabbe M.A.
Executive Director and Owner
